About the Brand

Hamdard is an iconic institution, with legacy products like RoohAfza in its portfolio. Hamdard, meaning 'companion in suffering', was started as a small clinic in undivided India in the year 1906 by Hakeem Hafiz Abdul Majeed. Hamdard grew into a household name under the noble vision of renowned Unani physician Hakeem Abdul Hameed, who transformed it into a multi-dimensional and internationally respected organization. Presently, Mr. Hammad Ahmed, Chief Trustee is steering the growth of Hamdard. Mr. Hamid Ahmed, CEO and Trustee of Hamdard Laboratories India (Food Division) is the driving force of all expansion plans, and forward business strategies.

Prime Attributes of Khaalis
